THE CANONS

TITLE I – The Convention

Canon I – Election of a Bishop

Sec. 1.01 Whenever, in the Providence of God, it may be necessary to choose a Bishop, the call for an electing convention shall be made by resolution of the Standing Committee, which shall first seek approval to hold an election from the Anglican Church in North America (ACNA) College of Bishops, and then shall give, through its Secretary, notice of the electing convention to all Clergy and, ~~Parishes,~~ and ~~Missions~~ congregations of the Diocese. Following such call to election, a Nominations Committee shall be composed by electing one (1) cleric and one (1) member of the laity from each deanery. In addition, the Ecclesiastical Authority may appoint one member. The organization and operation of the Nominations Committee shall be determined by the members. The prayers of the Clergy and Laity shall be bidden, that God may supply a Pastor after His own heart.

Sec. 1.02 The election of a Bishop shall be made in either the Annual or a Special meeting of the Convention called for that purpose. One hundred and fifty (150) days' notice of the electing convention shall be given to the Diocese by the Secretary of the Standing Committee, through the Secretary of Convention. The Secretary of the Standing Committee shall also make a request for nominations through the Secretary of Convention. The mode of notice shall be consistent with the manner prescribed by Article V, Section 3, of the Constitution.

Sec. 1.03 Once the notice of the electing convention has been made, members of the Diocese, both clergy and lay, may submit nominations to be considered by the Nominations Committee, in a manner prescribed by the Committee, within 30 days of the date of the notice.

Sec. 1.04 It is the duty of the Nominations Committee to determine an initial slate of no less than three (3) and no more than five (5) qualified members of the clergy as candidates for the election. This Initial Slate of Candidates must be published a minimum of ninety (90) days prior to the election. The mode of notice shall be in the same manner as the Notice of electing convention.

Sec. 1.05 After the Initial Slate of Candidates is published, additional nominations may be submitted to the Nominations Committee for 30 days from the date of publication of the Initial Slate of Candidates. These nominations must be made in writing and signed by eight (8) members of the Convention representing at least four (4) congregations eligible to vote in Convention. The Nominations Committee shall be responsible to subject each additional nominee to the same clearances required of the initial nominees. Each additional nominee that passes the clearances shall be added the Final Slate of Candidates, which shall be published no later than forty-five (45) days prior to the election. The mode of notice shall be in the same manner as the Notice of electing convention.

Sec. 1.06 Once the Final Slate of Candidates is determined, the Nominations Committee will then coordinate and publicize pre-election opportunities for the candidates to visit congregations of the Diocese and make presentations for the benefit of the delegates.

Sec. 1.07 Any Convention where an election of a Bishop is to be held shall open with Divine service. When the Convention has been called to order by its President, prayers shall be offered, together with the reading of appropriate lessons of Holy Scripture, after which, the Final Slate of Candidates having been announced and tellers having been appointed, the Convention shall proceed to ballot.

Sec. 1.08 If two-thirds of all the Clergy entitled to vote be present, and two-thirds of all the ~~Parishes and Missions~~ congregations entitled to vote be represented, then a majority of each order present shall determine a choice. If such two-thirds of the Clergy, ~~Parishes, and Missions~~ and congregations in union with Convention be not present, then two-thirds of the votes in each order present shall be necessary to determine a choice. The vote of the Clergy and the Laity shall be taken separately, and a concurrence of the majority of the votes cast in each order shall be required to constitute an election. If there be no election, subsequent ballots may be taken until, by God's Holy Spirit, a Bishop be duly chosen and declared elected. The electing body from the Diocese shall certify the election of a Bishop for consent by the College of Bishops, in accordance with the Canons of the ACNA.

Canon II – Members of Convention

Sec. 2.01 One (1) week before the meeting of any Convention of the Diocese, the Ecclesiastical Authority shall prepare a list of all the Clergy of the Church canonically resident in the Diocese, together with their respective cures and domiciles. Such list shall be laid before the Convention at the opening of the meeting and prefixed to the Journal. In the said list shall be declared the names of those Clergymen entitled to seats and votes in the Convention and such declaration shall be taken as presumptive evidence of the right of those indicated to seats and votes in the Convention. All Clergy licensed by the Ecclesiastical Authority to officiate in the Diocese but not canonically resident shall be entitled to seat and voice without vote.

Sec. 2.02 (a) Lay Delegates and Alternates to Convention shall be communicants in good standing and be elected by the congregation or, should the ~~C~~ongregation fail to elect, by the Vestry ~~or Bishop's Committee~~, and their appointment shall be certified by the Chairman and Secretary of the meeting at which they were elected, on forms provided by the Secretary of Convention for that purpose. For Annual Conventions the list of Delegates' and Alternates' names and addresses shall be forwarded to the diocesan office by July 1, and for Special Conventions at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the time appointed for the meeting. A copy of this list shall be forwarded to the Secretary of Convention and the appropriate Rural Dean. Said list shall be presumptive evidence of the right to seat, voice, and vote of Lay Delegates in the Convention named therein. Thereafter, a copy of this list shall be available to those who request it.

(b) The following definitions pertaining to any use of “Communicant” shall apply throughout these Canons:

Sec. 2.04 Alternate Delegates to Convention shall be seated in the absence of the regular appointees in the order in which their names appear on the certificates as described in Sec. 2.02 herein. This order is normally determined by the greater number of votes received at the time of election.

Sec. 2.05 When the right of any person to a seat in Convention is disputed or the right of any ~~Parish or Mission~~ congregation to representation therein, the matter shall be referred to the Bishop, or the Ecclesiastical Authority in the absence of the Bishop..

The Committee may nominate candidates if no other nominations are received for a particular office. The report of the Committee shall be presented to each ~~Parish and Mission~~ congregation as soon as possible before the Convention. This procedure shall not preclude further nominations from the floor of Convention, nor does it imply that all names submitted will be accepted by the Committee as nominees.

"Expenses," as used in this Canon, shall have the same meaning as in Section 5238(a) of the California Corporations Code.~~
- (b) ~~On a written request to the Diocesan Council by any person seeking indemnification under Section 5238(b) or Section 5238(c) of the California Corporations Code, the Council shall promptly determine under Section 5238(e) of the California Corporations Code whether the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 5238(b) or Section 5238(c) has been met and, if so, the Council shall authorize indemnification.~~
 - (c) ~~To the fullest extent permitted by law and except as otherwise determined by the Council in a specific instance, expenses incurred by a person seeking indemnification under Section 9.11(a) above of these Canons in defending any proceeding covered by those Sections shall be advanced by the Diocese before final disposition of the proceeds, on receipt by the Diocese of an undertaking by or on behalf of that person that the advance will be repaid unless it is ultimately determined that the person is entitled to be indemnified by the Diocese for those expenses.~~

(c) The Diocese of San Joaquin shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any proceeding by reason of the fact that the person is or was an agent of the corporation, against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person believed to be in the best interests of the Diocese and, in the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct of the person was unlawful. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which the person believed to be in the best interests of the Diocese or that the person had reasonable cause to believe that the person’s conduct was unlawful.

(d) The Diocese of San Joaquin shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action by or in the right of the Diocese, to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the person is or was an agent of the corporation, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the defense or settlement of the action if the person acted in good faith, in a manner in which the person believed to be in the best interests of the Diocese and with that care, including reasonable inquiry, as an ordinary prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances. No indemnification shall be made under this subdivision:

(1) In respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which the person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Diocese in the performance of the person’s duty to the Diocese, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the proceeding is or was pending shall determine upon application that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for the expenses which the court shall determine;

(2) Of amounts paid in settling or otherwise disposing of a threatened or pending action, with or without court approval; or

(3) Of expenses incurred in defending a threatened or pending action which is settled or otherwise disposed of without court approval.

(e) To the extent that an agent of a Diocese has been successful on the merits in defense of any proceeding referred to in subdivision (c) or (d) or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, the agent shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the agent in connection therewith.

(f) Except as provided in subdivision (e), any indemnification under this Section shall be made by the Diocese only if authorized in the specific case, upon a determination that indemnification of the agent is proper in the circumstances because the agent has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in either subdivision (c) or (d) by:

(1) A majority vote of a quorum consisting of the members of the Diocesan Standing Committee who are not parties to the proceeding; or,

(2) The court in which the proceeding is or was pending upon application made by the Diocese or the agent or the attorney or other person rendering services in connection with the defense, whether or not the application by the agent, attorney, or other person is opposed by the Diocese.

(g) Expenses incurred in defending any proceeding may be advanced by the Diocese prior to the final disposition of the proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the agent to repay the amount unless it shall be determined ultimately that the agent is entitled to be indemnified as authorized in this section.

(h) No provision made by the Diocese to indemnify its directors, officers, employees, agents, and volunteers for the defense of any proceeding, whether contained in the constitution or canons shall be valid unless consistent with this Section. Nothing contained in this Section shall affect any right to indemnification to which persons other than the directors and officers may be entitled by contract or otherwise.

(i) No indemnification or advance shall be made under this section, except as provided in subdivision (e) or paragraph (2) of subdivision (f), in any circumstance where it appears that:

- (1) It would be inconsistent with a provision of the constitution or canons in effect at the time of the accrual of the alleged cause of action asserted in the proceeding in which the expenses were incurred or other amounts were paid, which prohibits or otherwise limits indemnification; or
- (2) It would be inconsistent with any condition expressly imposed by a court in approving a settlement.

(j) A Diocese of San Joaquin shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any agent of the Diocese against any liability asserted against or incurred by the agent in that capacity or arising out of the agent's status as such whether or not the Diocese would have the power to indemnify the agent against that liability under the provisions of this section.
